

Resort Management

A Program of Study Offered Through

Florida State University
Dedman School of Hospitality

May 7 - August 17, 2018

Location:
Destin, Florida

PROGRAM OUTLINE

Florida State University, a recognized leader in tourism and hospitality management, will host a summer internship program leading to a concentration in Resort and Condominium Management.

The 12-credit hour curriculum will be administered by Dr. Mark A. Bonn, the Dedman Professor of Services Management.

PROGRAM PARTICIPATION

This program is designed to serve two major groups: (1) full-time FSU students seeking to fulfill internship requirements; and (2) other non-FSU college students (especially those in residence at properties in and around the surrounding area) who would like to earn academic credit from Florida State for use as transfer credit at their home institutions.

FULL-TIME FSU STUDENTS

By agreement with the program partners, students are placed into paid internship positions to study resort and condominium management. The appointment includes a salary per hour based on a 40-hour work week.

Accommodation fees will be deducted directly from each student's weekly pay check by the resort.

Acceptance into the program includes a mandatory 12-semester hour course work requirement. Specific credit courses are outlined in further detail in this brochure. Managers from various properties will be available for guest lectures to complement classes taught by FSU faculty.

NON-FSU PARTICIPANTS

Credit: Non-FSU students are invited to participate in the credit classes taught in the area. Each class carries three semester hours of regular undergraduate credit and is transferable to many colleges and universities across the nation. For students not majoring in Hospitality, "HFT 3941: Internship in Resort Management" can be taken for a maximum of 12 credit hours. We recommend you check with your individual school to confirm transferability.

Pre-registration is required by April 27, 2018. Please return the attached form to:
